

Message From The Director

Of Libraries, and of Patriots

From the early days in America, the library was intended to help educate the public and make better citizens of the residents. As we consider the Fourth of July, what does the month of July stand for in our minds and memory? The library provides materials to help define, refine, and mold the hearts and minds of the community.

Maybe we should ask what we personally stand for as Americans? Do we stand for the flag, or does the flag stand for us? Edgar A. Guest, a poet in the late 1800s and early 1900s, suggested what it means to be an American in his poem "A Patriotic Wish" published in Over Here (Reilly & Britton Company, 1918). This was during World War I, a time of patriotism and reflection.

A Patriotic Wish
By Edgar Guest

I'd like to be the sort of man the flag could boast about;
I'd like to be the sort of man it cannot live without;
I'd like to be the type of man
That really is American:

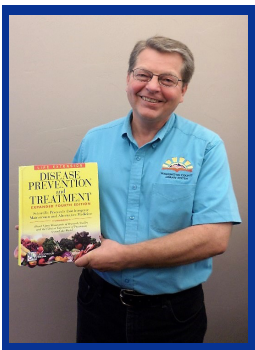

The head-erect and shoulders-square,
Clean-minded fellow, just and fair,
That all men picture when they see
The glorious banner of the free.

I'd like to be the sort of man the flag now typifies,
The kind of man we really want the flag to symbolize;
The loyal brother to a trust,
The big, unselfish soul and just,

The friend of every man oppressed,
The strong support of all that's best,
The sturdy chap the banner's meant,
Where'er it flies, to represent.

I'd like to be the sort of man the flag's supposed to mean,
The man that all in fancy see wherever it is seen,
The chap that's ready for a fight
Whenever there's a wrong to right,

The friend in every time of need,
The doer of the daring deed,
The clean and generous handed man
That is a real American.

As we gather to celebrate this Fourth of July, let's take a moment to reflect on the values that unite us as a nation: liberty, justice, and the pursuit of happiness, and the resilience that define America. Happy Independence Day!

Summer Reading Sponsors

The Summer Reading Program stands as the most popular initiative offered by our Library System, engaging an impressive average of 5,500 participants each year. This year's theme, "Adventure Begins at Your Library," perfectly encapsulates the spirit of our program.

By promoting reading during the summer months - when school is out and reading skills can often decline, a phenomenon known as the "summer slide" - we aim to foster continuous learning and development.

Our program motivates readers of all ages with enticing incentives awarded upon reaching their reading goals, encouraging consistent engagement throughout the summer. This wouldn't be possible without the generous contributions from our sponsors. Their support bridges the gap created by budget constraints, allowing us to offer a high-quality reading program to our community.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to our sponsors for their invaluable support in enhancing literacy within our community. These sponsors contribute coupons, gift certificates, and a variety of prizes, all of which are awarded to participants throughout the summer.

By supporting this program, our sponsors are making a significant investment in the future of our youth, our community, and our society. Please visit your library to view our sponsor list and take a moment to personally thank these generous contributors!

Employee Spotlight

I am pleased to present Diane Kay as the June Employee Spotlight. Diane works part-time at the Hurricane Branch, and has been with the library just over three years. It is a pleasure to introduce Diane here to you as the Washington County Library System employee spotlight.

She gives service with a smile, and helps keep the circulation desk function well as a valued member of the circulation staff. She enjoys helping patrons, and serving the community.

Outside of her time at the library she enjoys hiking, biking, and running. She enjoys spending time with her husband, children and grandchildren. They love being outdoors and enjoying the Southern Utah sun. Additionally, she loves to travel to new places and see new things. When asked about a place that stands out in her travels, she really enjoyed the Caribbean Sea, and Aruba was a favorite standout in her memory.

Director
